SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

★ How to cut down on waste by eliminating haste ★ A list of foods that are really low priced ★ An illustrated story worth reading

The shoes are large but we'll try our best to fill them

You've probably seen many new faces among Safeway people. For each day more and more Safeway men are joining the armed forces. We tell you this with pride and with the hope that you'll understand if our service isn't quite as good as you've come to expect. The shoes of experienced Safeway men are hard to fill—but our new men and women are trying their best.

Haste in shopping makes waste in food and in time too

It has always been our family duty to waste as little food as possible—today it is our patriotic duty. And certainly the most effective way to do this is to plan menus and shopping lists together—a week at a time. For this gives you the opportunity to fit one day's leftovers into the next day's menu—to vary meals—to keep meals well-rounded nutritionally—to stick to the budget—and to plan definite times for shopping, thus cutting down on shopping trips. But streamlined shopping schedules take careful planning. And at all times the perishability of different meats and vegetables must be kept in mind.

For meats, you might select shoulder lamb chops, enough ham loaf for two nights, and Swiss steak. If stored in the refrigerator, most meats will keep about a week; cured meats like ham and bacon will keep longer; but ground meats, poultry, and fresh fish should be cooked the same day or day after.

For vegetables, you might choose corn, string beans, carrots, tomatoes, cucumbers, green onions, lettuce, and celery. That's not counting the potatoes and onions you'd have on hand already. As soon as you get home, wash the vegetables quickly, dry, and store them in a covered container in the refrigerator. Use green and leafy vegetables that day or the next. Carrots and corn will keep longer.

Now let's say, for example, that you are buying these meats and vegetables on Monday to last until Friday. Here are the dinner menus the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau suggests you might have planned before buying.

MONDAY DINNER
Baked Ham Loaf garnished with Canned Spiced Peaches
Scalloped Potatoes
Tossed Vegetable Salad of Torn Lettuce, Finely Sliced Green Onions, Celery, and Quartered Tomatoes with French Dressing
Gingerbread with Whipped Cream

TUESDAY DINNER
Braised Shoulder Lamb Chops
Corn on the Cob — Melted Butter
Buttered String Beans
Lettuce and Tomato Salad with Mayonnaise
Berry Shortcake with Pouring Cream

WEDNESDAY DINNER
Cold Sliced Ham Loaf
String Bean and Corn Succotash
Pickles — Potato Chips
Shredded Carrot and Raisin Salad
Ice Cream and Cookies

THURSDAY DINNER
Braised Swiss Steak with Brown Gravy
Quartered Potatoes and Carrots, and Tiny Whole Onions Cooked with the Meat
Stuffed Pear Salad
Butterscotch Cream Pie

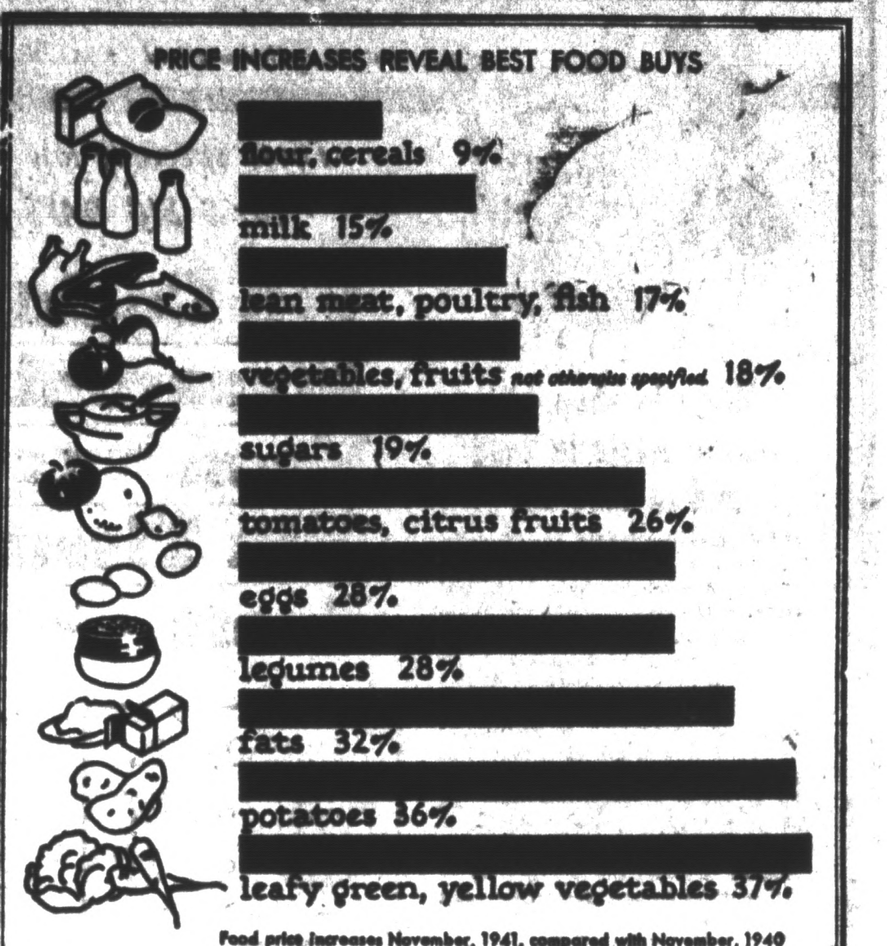
U. S. Diet Standards Studied



THE average price increase for a moderate cost adequate diet for a family of four, for one week, has increased 24 per cent in the past year, according to the National Dairy Council. The foods chosen were based on dietary standards set up by the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture. The prices were from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

Average price increases of each group of foods were computed from the latest retail prices in 51 cities compared to the same period of the previous year. The smallest price increase, 9 per cent, was for flour and cereals. Milk was the next smallest with an increase of only 15 per cent. The price increase for fats varied from 16 to 63 per cent with an average of 32 per cent. Among all fats butter with 16 per cent showed the lowest increase.

WAR SAVINGS BONDS

n—must, to win the war, buy War Savings Stamps d Bonds NOW. You should buy them every pay-day.

Uncle Sam needs your money to win this war. And re is what your money will do! 25 cents will buy a zen bandages—how they needed them on Bataan!
.00 will buy a Navy raincoat to keep a sailor boy snug d dry on his lonely watch. Only ten cents will buy e .45 caliber cartridges—five of America's enemies
t out of action for the price of a good cigar! $3.50 buys hell for a 37 mm anti-tank gun—and that may mean e less tank for Hitler. $5.00 will buy a steel helmet at might save a soldier's life. $18.75, which is what u pay for a Bond worth $25.00 at maturity, will buy complete field telephone or a high-altitude flying jact; two of 'em—$37.50—will buy a marine barometer help safeguard our fleet!

To make America safe, invest in United States Savgs Stamps and Bonds with every pay check. To keep nerica free, save at least ten per cent of your income

As usual, Bud Abbott is trying to knock some sense into Lou Costello's head, and, as usual, it proves futile. The comedy kings are having their latest laugh escapades in the M-G-M musical, "Rio Rita," currently playing at the Daly City theatre. Add to the entertainment features of the new picture the singing of a new romantic team composed of Kathryn Grayson and John Carroll.

No Campfires!

The Western Defense Command has instructed the U. S. Forest Service that "No campfires will be permitted after dark unless they may be extinguished immediately upon receipt of an air raid warning."

Lieutenant General John L. DeWitt's orders prohibit campfires at night except where provision is made for immediate receipt of air raid warning signals. Since most camping and picnicking areas in the "great outdoors" are not equipped with air raid warning facilities the order prohibits campfires after dark in virtually all outing regions.

Smith Leads In Straw Ballots

Growing support throughout San Mateo county for Hugh H. Smith sr. in his campaign for county executive was recorded during the past week by means of straw ballots and polls by different organizations, according to an announcement by James H. Kane, in charge of the Smith headquarters in San Mateo. Kane declared that tabulations thus far showed a decided preference for the Smith candidacy.

In Redwood City the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Kane said, took a straw ballot with the following results: Smith, 17; Peterson, 2; Witt, 1. In the same city a straw vote by the Exchange Club revealed, Kane added, the following: Smith, 18; Peterson, 1; Witt, 2.

In Burlingame, the Smith manager reported a prominent women's organization was polled with even more startling results. He declared the organization was non-political and refused to permit use of its name, but released the results, which were: Smith, 45; Peterson, 4; Witt, 1. Other surveys now underway in other sections will be announced at a later date, Kane declared.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

Ten per cent of your income in War Bonds will help to build the planes and tanks that will insure defeat of Hitler and his Axis partners.
